Shepherd Was In Form and Held Colts To Seven Scattered Hits and One Run—Score Was 5 to 1.

Lexington, Ky., May 26—Maysville easily outclassed Lexington in the first game of the series here today and won by the score of 5 to 1.

The River Rats scored two in the first round on a base on balls, a three-bagger by Kaiser and an excusable error by McClellan. In the second they got as many more on Barrett's error and three scratchy singles, and in the sixth they secured their last tally in Wickham's long triple and a clean single by Tinnin.

The Colts got men on bases in nearly every round, but they weren't there when it came to putting them over the counting platter. McClellan and White hit two-base hits and a number of singles were secured off Shepherd, but he always tightened up in the pinches and stopped the rallies as they came. The homer by Hambrick was the only run scored off this stingy twirler.

The only feature of the game was the work of Guy in the left garden. Although he did little damage with his war club, he made one catch that was a beauty and he also cut off Kelly by yards when he attempted to take second on a single in the fourth inning. The score:

OUTLAW LEADERS KILLED

Field Headquarters, near Namiquipa, Mexico, May 26—(Via Radio to Columbus, N. M.)—Candelario Cervantes, the Villa bandit leader, was killed by American troops south of Cruces yesterday.

Another Mexican, Jose Benconer, and an American, were killed. Two Americans were wounded.

Cervantes' end came after he had made a surprise attack south of Cruces on a detachment of engineers repairing the motor truck road. He was beaten back and pursued into the hills by the engineers who had been reinforced by a detachment of the Seventh Infantry.

When the engagement began the bandits outnumbered the Americans 3 to 1, there being twenty of them. The engagement lasted almost an hour, with a hot interchange of bullets. Then reinforcements came in sight and the bandits broke for the hills. Private George O. Hullitt, was the hero of the fight. Bullets from his rifle laid low both of the bandits killed.

The Mt. Olivet Tribune-Democrat says: "Many of our people will remember Mrs. Emma Trigg Anderson, widow of the late Thomas Anderson, of Maysville. Mrs. Anderson, who is now a resident of Cedar Rapids, Ia., is visiting relatives in Kentucky and came to Mt. Olivet Sunday, accompanied by her brother-in-law, Mr. Swartz, of Cincinnati, to pay a visit to her niece, Mrs. J. B. Sparks, whom Mrs. Anderson had not seen in twenty years. Mrs. Anderson is in splendid health."

Of Charter Members of Limestone Lodge No. 36, K. of P. of This City.

About forty-five years ago Wyandotte Tribe No. 16 I. O. R. M. of this city was the only Tribe of that order in Kentucky that had any standing—or anything else worth speaking of—the others having faded out of existence; and on September 22, 1875, the members of Wyandotte, to prevent a separation, organized a lodge of Knights of Pythias to be known as Limestone Lodge No. 26 with fifty-one charter members, as follows:

W. R. Archdeacon.
R. A. Carr.
Horatio Picklin.
H. M. Mills.
Henry Ort.
R. Albert.
C. Blatterman.
Fred Bendel.
J. J. Broese.
O. D. Burkyne.
J. M. Ballenger.
A. B. Cochran.
O. T. Canfield.
George W. Childs.

S. M. Hall.
J. C. Miller.
B. P. McClannahan.
E. A. Robinson.
W. N. Rudy.
W. H. Sutherland.
John W. Thompson.

Of the above fifty-one charter members but five, those marked with a † are still faithful; and of the hopeful Knights that launched old Limestone on her successful career that pretty September night in the lodge room on Sutton street thirty-seven—whose names are designated by a *—have found eternal rest in the beautiful City of the Dead.

The present membership of the lodge is 240 and is still growing. The lodge now owns its own beautiful building on West Second street and the financial condition is excellent.

BULLET ENDS KENTUCKIAN'S LIFE

Lexington, Ky., May 24—June Kimball was shot and killed and Calvin and George Lacey were seriously wounded when members of the two families met near Clinton, in Wayne county, today, according to a report reaching here. Rafael Lacey, who also is alleged to have taken part in the fight, is being sought by the authorities, the report said.

According to the report, the trouble arose over the settlement of some grain raised by the Lacey family on June Kimball's farms. The families met today in an effort to settle the dispute, it is said. Hot words were exchanged and June Kimball knocked George Lacey down, it is alleged. George is the head of the Lacey family, and the others immediately took part.

The Kimball and Lacey families are prominent in Wayne county, and it is said bad feeling has existed between them for some time.

MONSEY'S MONEY

Dr. Messenger Monsey—and it happens this is his true name—laid by for old age. He didn't care to spend his old age practicing medicine. He wanted a period in his life when he could rest all day and sleep all night. So he saved money. He selected the fireplace of his sitting room for his treasury. He placed his bank-notes and cash under the stone. Upon his return from a sudden call he found the maid had built a warm fire on the hearth. Need we say more about Monsey's money? The one, sure, safe, solid place to keep YOUR money is in an account with us.
